

Open Sky
presents a special event

stories of the path

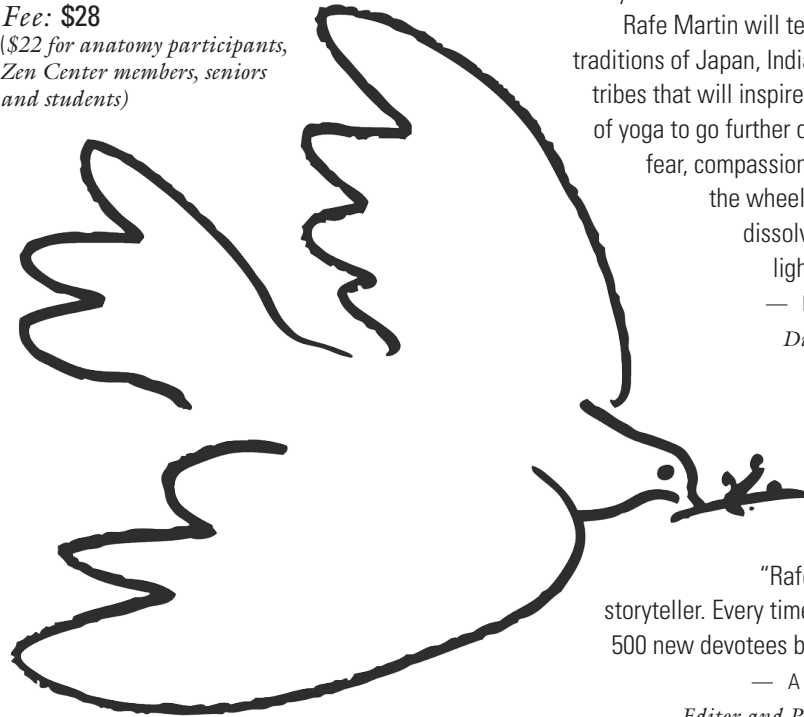

Enjoy an evening with internationally acclaimed spiritual storyteller
Rafe Martin

September 10, 7:30pm

Fee: $28
($22 for anatomy participants, Zen Center members, seniors and students)

"Yoga is a Path, a mythical quest, a journey a mysterious destination and a state of being. Rafe Martin will tell stories from spiritual traditions of Japan, India and Native American tribes that will inspire students and teachers of yoga to go further on the Path. Experience fear, compassion, tears and laughter—the wheel of Life and Death—to dissolve the veil covering the light of Consciousness..."
— FRANÇOIS RAULT
Director of Open Sky Yoga

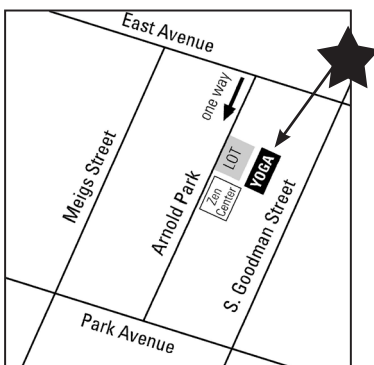

"Rafe Martin is an amazing storyteller. Every time he appears he makes 500 new devotees because he is magical."
— ARTHUR A. LEVINE,
Editor and Publisher of Harry Potter

Rafe Martin is an award winning, internationally known author and storyteller whose work has been featured in Time, Newsweek and USA Today. He has performed at the National Storytelling Festival in Jonesborough TN, the International Storytelling Center, the Joseph Campbell Festival of Myth and Story, and is a recipient of the Empire State Award. He is also an ordained lay Zen practitioner, with many years of Zen practice and study.
